Medford High School

The Blue & White 1996

To the Class of 1996,

Traditionally, at Medford High, the purpose our yearbook is to reflect upon the special memories each of us has enjoyed in our years at the high school.

In April of 1995, the yearbook staff gathered to perform the difficult task of discovering things that we all had in common. We all liked music, but many different types. We all enjoyed movies, but each had a different favorite. We all had special places to gather and socialize, but these, too, varied. One thing that everybody agreed we had in common was the enjoyment of some of the most popular television shows from yesterday and today. From songs on Sesame Street, to the hysterical dialogue of Ellen, to the dramatic moments on E.R.; The mention of these shows spark common emotions in all of us.

As we move on to "The Real World," we will look back fondly on the memories and experiences that we shared together at Medford High. Our yearbook, with all its photographs and memories, will hopefully combine to create a pleasant, reminiscent walk through the halls of Medford High School.

THANK YOU

ON BEHALF OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1996, THE YEARBOOK STAFF EXPRESSES SINCERE GRATITUDE TO THE PEOPLE WHO HELPED THEM THE MOST.

Class Advisors
Mrs. Parsons
Mr. Camarra

"The Class of 1996 is one of the very best that has come through Medford High School. When you entered Medford High School you were girls and boys. Now upon your completion you are young adults.

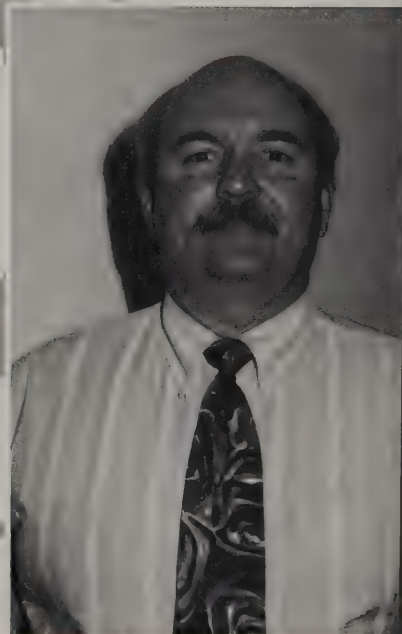

Best of luck in the future. I know all of you will be successful in everything that you choose to do. We will miss you all." Mr. Stephen Mascoll, Senior Submaster.

The Prevue Guide Medford High School Class of 1996

Due to general cost concerns, the yearbook staff decided to limit the size of each senior's write-up. A specific number of typeset characters was to be allowed for each senior. The class of 1996 easily amended the situation to meet their needs. How could they squeeze in so memories without breaking the rules?? .the ansr wuz 2 spel the wrds tha way they sounded! This will be quite an adventure, but the results will be rewarding. So, sit back, have fun, and enjoy the walk through the halls of MHS, 1996.

The Three Best Friends. We started out in Junior High and now we made it to High School together and still we're Best friends. From sunny days to stormy days we stick by each other and learn to face. Without each other we wouldn't make it this far. Because we need Ruth for laughter. We need Barbara for attitude and we need Nadege to prevent us from getting in to trouble. Our friendship is like a treasure and we're holding on to it for life because it is a lifetime gift. Nadege,Ruth,and Barbara a Frienship to remember.

My Freshman year I was on the student council. Sophomore year through Senior I was a homeroom rep. I had some great times at Medford High and I'll always remember: times at lunch, all the joking and laughing with friends. Lynsay you especially are one I should thank for my graduating, without you who knows where I'd be? The Junior prom was definitely one to remember! Even though we went through some tough times as a class we're OK. Years from now we'll look back and say remember when... Good Luck Evry 1.

"Head of the Class"

Superintendent's Message

Roy E. Belson
Superintendent of Schools

Congratulations. Your hard work and learning has earned you right to be called a graduate of Medford High School. This distinction places you alongside many fine individuals who have come before you and have gone out into the world and made their mark. Throughout your twenty years of schooling you have gained knowledge, skills and attitudes that will prepare you for the future. Each day will bring obstacles and opportunities that will challenge what you have learned. You must be ready to build upon your experience at Medford High School and continue to grow.

Graduation from Medford High School does not end the learning process. Learning must be a life-long endeavor and each of you should utilize the world outside of school as a classroom. Your friendships developed here at Medford High School can be a great resource to you as you move beyond the 12th grade. Don't forget your friends; add to them. You never know when one of them will become part of your life down the road.

Be an optimist; pessimism is a waste of time. Contribute to your community because it is through community that we find our true identity and achieve the most worthwhile goals.

I wish all of you the best and trust that each of you in your own way will make the world a little better place to live.

Headmaster's Message

Salvatore A. Todaro
Headmaster

On behalf of the Faculty and the Underclassmen of Medford High School, may I extend heartfelt congratulations to each and every member of the graduating Class of 1996. You have climbed to a significant plateau in your educational career, and for this I applaud you, one and all.

The Class has demonstrated the ability and gleaned the knowledge to challenge the world of the unknown. The mysteries of the universe can be unraveled by your commitment to purpose and by your exploration of the unexplored. The mind, as we know it, is a marvelous wonder which we have yet to understand in its potential for servicing the needs of humankind. Therefore it is incumbent upon each member of the Class of 1996 to direct his or her energies to help make the world a better place in which to live.

The feeling of satisfaction in achieving your established goals will remain with you for a lifetime. Each goal will be an asset in helping to garner your most cherished wishes for your family, friends, and the community at large.

May you ever have the courage to undertake, the perseverance to continue, the pride to excel, and the humility to enjoy your accomplishments.

I should like to leave the Class of 1996 with some thoughts from Ralph Waldo Emerson's essay "Self-Reliance": "... Let us affront and reprimand the smooth mediocrity and squalid contentment of the time, and hurl in the face of custom and trade and office, the fact which is the upshot of all history, that there is a great responsible Thinker and Actor working wherever a man works; that true man belongs to no other time or place, but is the center of things."

In closing, I wish all of you a life of untold health and happiness.

Voke Director's Message

Lawrence Volpe
Vocational School Director

To the Class of 1996, I offer my personal congratulations on the successful completion of your high school studies. Your hard work, determination, perseverance, and maturity will stand you in good stead as you venture into future endeavors. I urge you to set your goals high and to follow your dreams to a life of satisfaction and fulfillment. You have received an education that will serve as a strong foundation for your future. You have mastered critical thinking skills, honed problem-solving abilities, and have learned to communicate, compute, and to contribute in this complex society. You are our future and we are depending on you. Whether you choose post-secondary study, the military, or the world of work your education at Medford High School will serve you well. You can be proud to say that I am a graduate of Medford High School.

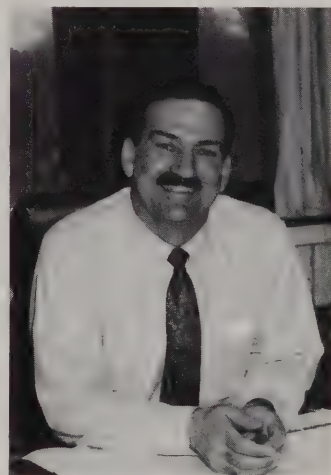

You will remember your high school years forever. In later years, cherished memories of proms, rallies, plays, athletic contests, luaus, and academic pursuits will reconnect you with your youth and those special times in your life. This yearbook will be a valuable resource to relive these very special times of your life. You have been a special class at Medford High School and it can truly be said that "Medford High School is a better place because you were a part of it." You have done yourselves proud, and you can hold your head high as you cross the graduation stage at Hormel Stadium. You are ready to meet the challenges that lie ahead by making informed decisions based on sound reasoning.

In closing, on behalf of the administration, faculty, and staff of Medford Vocational-Technical High School, we wish the Class of 1996 all the best that life can bring. Be true to your values, work hard, keep your sense of humor and remember we are all here for far too short a time. Good Luck and God Bless.

The 1996 Blue & White Dedication

Joseph Sammon

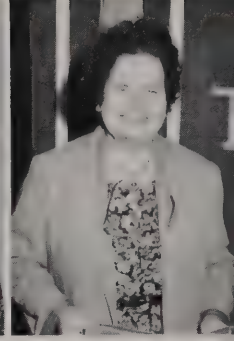

It is the pleasure of the 1996 Blue and White to dedicate this year's book to Mr. Joseph Sammon.

Mr. Sammon was born in Virginia and graduated from Medford High School in 1964. Mr. Sammon began as a practice teacher at the Roberts Junior High School in 1968, after graduating from Boston State College with his B.A. Mr. Sammon has been a very influential and admired English teacher for twenty-seven years.

Mr. Sammon connects with his students because he remembers what it is like to be a high school student and can relate to them with parallel understandings. He has left a lasting impression on all his students. His ability to relate today's society with English literature gives his students more than an academic education, but also one in life.

Mr. Joseph Sammon has been a vital asset to Medford High School and the education that it offers. This year's staff would like to commend Mr. Sammon for his dedication and commitment to his colleagues and students during all his years at Medford High School.

Mr. Steven Miller

Farewell to a friend

Stephen Miller shall be remembered not only for his exceptional job as a para-professional administrative aide and assistant director, but as a fun-loving, down-to-earth man who cared about everybody. A graduate of Medford High School himself, Mr. Miller had an inborn school spirit. He was there to help out all athletic teams; to solve all the problems. As Athletic Director Francis "Bud" Kelly put it, "He was the jack of all trades."

Mr. Miller had close relationships with the faculty and coaches, but he was especially liked by the kids and athletes at MHS. He was there to support them whether the team was up or down, winning or losing. According to Math Teacher and Coach Mark Smith, "Stephen Miller bled blue and white." He was an asset to our school; he did anything that was asked of him, all the "extras" for the school.

Stephen Miller is survived by his wife Rose Napoli and sons Stephen and Joseph, also graduates of Medford High School. He was an intricate part of the emotional support system at our school and will always remain in our hearts.

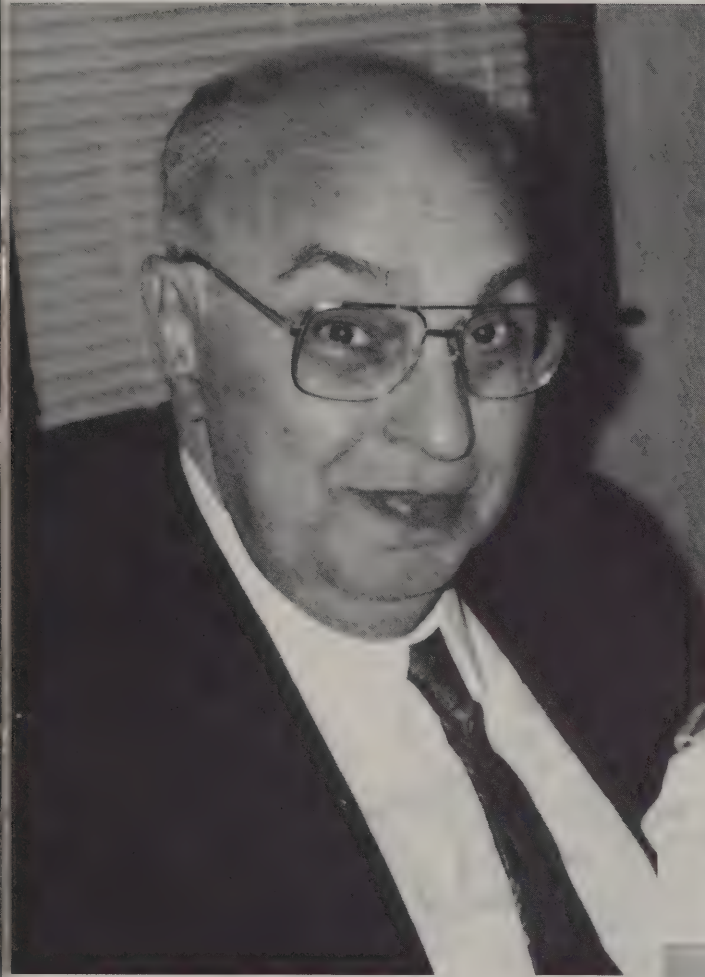

We share a moment of silence.

A Tribute to a "Teammate"

The Medford Mustangs bow their heads as a tribute in a moment of silence to commemorate the late beloved Steve Miller.

Thoughts on those gone before us...

Dr. Joseph Valeriani

The Medford High School Community lost two life-long professionals, partners and mentors during the Winter of 1996. Although we all will continue on our journey without these and other loyal comrades friends and role models, we will owe a portion of our joys and successes to the tireless contributions these two gentlemen.

*"Goodbye, brothers!
You were a good crowd.
As good a crowd as ever fisted with wild cries the beating canvas of a heavy foresail; or tossing aloft, invisible in the night,
gave back a yell to a westerly gale."*

MHS Sweeps Week

A BLAST FROM THE PAST!!!

Do you remember the days when people dressed with peace symbols and love beads? Probably not but seniors will remember Hippie Day on Nov. 12th when the words "Far out man!" echoed through the hallways. Glimpses of the eighties were evident due to the crimped overblown hair, cuffed pants and shouts of "Radical Dude!" By the time Friday rolled around and preparations for the Luau were just a few hours away, we seniors were ready for bed, so what could have been more appropriate than Pajama Day. Bunny and Odie slippers were everywhere! This was by far the most popular day of the week. Spirits were flying so high that no one could find escape from all the excitement even if they wanted to.

These girls must have been part of the sixties!

Madam I'm Adam wants to know who woke them up.

L-R Jessica, Brian, Renay and Stephanie are all too hyper to be wearing those clothes.

Melissa, Laurie and Amanda : "Peace out, lovechild!"

"Yes, we really would rather be sleeping."

Katie Rimmer practices for Fame!

Lainy Destin and Amanda Poverchuk want to know if anyone has a current fashion magazine.

Tanya Curtis and Joe Dunne are dressed perfectly for pajama day in Medford High.

Heather Rogers, Lyndsay Brown and Rosemarie Sciaraffa: "Peace!"

MUSTANGS ...

A student's perspective:

I had some trouble at the high school. Then I enrolled in the Curtis-Tufts Alternative School and it helped me out. When I left the high school I thought that there was no place for me to go; but some one had told me about the Curtis, the Curtis is not for everybody. It's for kids who want a second chance at school and their life.

The program is led by Mr. Alan Levy and the caring staff who are always there as your friend and counselor. They helped me, and other students as well, through thick and thin. Thanks a whole bunch to the staff for everything that you have done for the other students and myself.

There are twelve students graduating in the Class of 1996, they are Jamie Callahan, Etoya Vaughn, Michele Spiros, Katie Walsh, Robert Scialoia, Walter Bachelder, Danielle Troville, Jen Scully, Dawn Connors, Jared Corner, Helene Gorgone, and Michael MacBeth.

Congratulations to all of you and good luck with your future!!!

L-R Jill Swain, Christina Angileri, Katie Rimmer, Laurie Thurott and Heidi May ensure that the Park Plaza never looked better.

Rita DeForte and Raymie Jean strike a pose.

On the evening of May 12th 1995, we, "The Bold and the Beautiful", gathered together at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel to experience the excitement of our first formal dance. The evening progressed with dining and dancing to the music of KISS 108 FM's D.J., Joe Public. Between the distribution of hats and the raffling of KISS Concert tickets, the Funky Girls put on an expedition of new-wave dancing. The evening was topped off with the crowning of the royal couple; King, Billy Richards and Queen, Asia Keal. As we parted that night, we took home memories that we shall treasure for years to come.

Aja Keel and Billy Richard are crowned by Headmaster Salvatore Madaro.

ALOHA SENIORS!!! Do you remember the evening of November 24, 1995? Well, you should because that was the night of our spectacular Senior Luau at Weylus. Katie Rimmer and Maria Menounos livened things up early in the evening with their performance of Madonna's hit "Like a Virgin". By the time the food arrived, everyone had already reserved their one way tickets to the dance floor. The seniors danced the night away to the music provided by D.J. Joe Public from KISS 108. The unification of our Senior class that night was indescribable. The Luau will definitely be remembered as one of the top functions held by the class. The executive board members of the Senior class, led by our president Carla Moniz, are to be commended for their superb job for the organization of this event.

As a student at Medford High School, you, or someone you know, has played a sport for the Medford Mustangs. Practicing every day after school, and coming into school in pain because of these practices, they are dedicated Mustangs who want to bring recognition to Medford High School.

In this section of SportsCenter, you will see many of your friends and classmates doing what they most enjoy. Whether it be soccer, basketball, football, swimming, or whatever sport they play, the students are having some of the best times of their high school careers, and we were there to capture it forever for all of the student body to enjoy.

Mike Marino: "Glad it ain't me!"

The Medford High School Football team did not have a winning record this season, but, nonetheless, they all stuck together, never giving up.

The coaches Bill Buldini and Mark Smith and the captains Mike Marino, Joe Camuso, and Jimmy Meagher, as well as the rest of the team, gave it their all and it all payed off as they won the most important game of the season, on Thanksgiving Day, against Malden, 25-14. The season was also highlighted by the team's first win of the season, against Cambridge.

Although the Medford High School Girl's Soccer team did not have a winning record this year, they did have what they considered a "rebuilding" year.

Coached by the father-daughter team of Jim Rainho and Rachel Rainho and led by Captains Danielle Pappas, Heidi May, and Kristen Sullivan, they went on to post a 6-14-0 record.

They are a team composed of great talent and potential, of youth, energy, and spirit. They know that they will grow in talent next year and still be a team made up of complete unity.

This year, the Medford High Boy's Soccer team did it-the Co-Champions of the Greater Boston League. Behind the leadership of co-captains Tommy Lizotte, Kevin Fleming, and Mark Peterson and the coaching of Ralph Marotta and George Scarpelli, they went on to a great season of 10-3-6. Co-Captain Tommy Lizotte put it best when he said, "No matter how hard we worked, and no matter who we beat, we were never thought of or ranked, but we became co-champs of the G.B.L. and knocked off the defending state champs in the tournament."

The soccer season was highlighted by beating the toughest of opponents in very close games, including the defending State Champs St. John's Prep., and not losing to the eventual State Champion contenders, Somerville.

The Medford High Boys Cross-Country team finished the season with a winning record, 5-3, despite losing seven seniors last year to graduation. Behind the excellent running of co-captains Bill Richard, Pat Toomey, and Dan Teixeira, Senior Brian Lynde, and the coaching of Louis Reggeiro and Tommy Lynch, they highlighted the season by beating Peabody for the first time in years. Next year, the team will look forward to having runners Pat Toomey, Jeremy Jordan, and Ricky Alpers to lead them to a great season.

The Medford High School Girls Cross-Country team, led by captains Lauren Dutra and Nikki Russell and coached by Louis Reggeiro and Tommy Lynch, had a great season of 6-1...good enough for 2nd place in the Greater Boston League. This year's team ran well, overcame adversity, and showed the other teams just how good they really were!

The squad placed first in all but one of the competitions in which they participated. The only one that they placed lower than first was held at Shepherd Hill, where they placed a very respectable second. The cheerleaders also spent one week at NCA Cheer camp, held at Governor Dummer Academy, where they received a bid for the National Competition, and in March they went to Albany, New York to compete in the Nationals.

Coaches Frank Jewett and Kevin Hickey and Captain Joey Roy, along with Seniors Corey Coonradt and Brian Crowley and the dependable player of Ray Brown helped the team post a respectable 5-6 record in a very tough Greater Boston League.

The coaches could count on every single one of the players to come every day and give it their all. This came out with the immense concentration and play of every player on the team.

The Medford High Girls Track Team, coached by Steven Mascoll and Tommy Lynch and captained by senior Lauren Dutra, did not have many 'team wins' as they did 'personal wins' which were very important to the entire team. Some of the season's highlights include defeating Peabody's relay team because of the speed of Medford runners Lauren Kong, Randel Porrevecchio, Lauren Dutra, and Jenn Sullivan. The top ranked win was that of Nikki Russell and Jenn Sullivan in their first and second place wins in the mile. With the personal success of this team this year, all of the members deserve to be proud to be a Medford Mustang.

Battling injuries and illness, tough breaks and turmoil, the Medford Boy's Track Team still managed to break the .500 mark (4-3-1).

Under the guidance of Coach Stephen Mascoll, and Assistant Coaches Tom Lynch, Mark Smith, Bill Buldini, and Tim Lynder, the team kept its determination. Led by Captains Bill Richard, Kevin Fleming, Elisee Lapaix, Zhanu Bowden, and Sam Davis, the boys prevailed in and outside of the GBL. At the Revere meet, Zhanu Bowden broke the school record with a high jump of 6'6.5", qualifying him for the national. The 4x400 relay grabbed a second place medal at the Yale invitational in New Haven, CT.

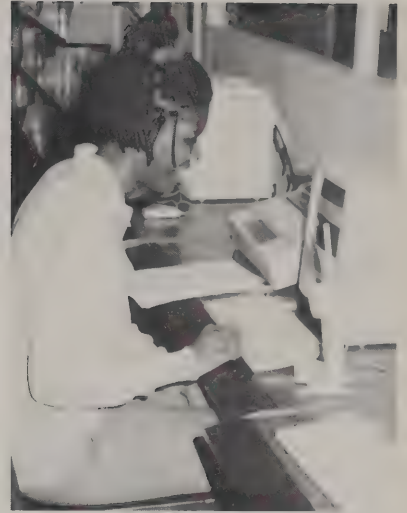

Other seniors who greatly contributed to the team's success are Brian Lynde, Mike Manning, Dan Teixeira, in the distance events; Van Johnson, hurdles; Adam Knight, high jump, and Doug Gothier as well as Jim Maffa, in the shot put.

Next year, there will be a big hole in the squad but upcoming underclassmen, such as Anthony Berriola and Jordan Jones, should fit in nicely.

African Cultural Club

The African Cultural Club, advised by Mr. Finner and Mr. Lovelace, is involved in numerous activities. The group sponsors programs for Black History Month in February and participates in a tutoring program with Tufts. They also plan the annual field trip to the House of Blues. Officers include: President Sarah Dixon, Vice President Samy Sterlin, Treasurer Tiesha Sims, and Secretary Keree Ann Waite.

Asian Club

The Asian club exposes the student population to Asian culture and offers an outlet for the Asian students to interact with other students. Students in the club range in heritage to include Vietnamese, Chinese, Indian, Sri Lankan, and Cambodian. Ms. Jody Liu and Mr. Gia Nguyen are co-advisors for the club and officers include: President Thanh Ngo, Vice President Michael Lai, Treasurer Vien Vo, and Secretary Binh Phan.

Audio Visual Club

Ms. Lisa Porter advises the audio visual club in maintaining, organizing, and circulating equipment in the video production department. These students satisfy their interest by setting up the gear for workshops in the television studio. From L-R Sandra howley, Laura Pacini, Ms. Lisa Porter, Maria Piemonte, Savina Lau.

MHS Band

Aside from the usual concert and Thanksgiving half-time performances, the MHS Band has been involved in some interesting activities. They created a Jazz band after school and performed with the Chorus at Fanueil Hall. Mr. Scott Bullock is the advisor and officers include: President Matt Mahoney, Vice President Colleen Murphy, Librarian Karla Kleinbergs, Treasurer Tom Farragher, and Secretary Savina Lau.

MHS Chorus

Under the new direction of Mr. Jon Simmons, this talented group of singers perform a Christmas and Spring Concert. Along with these customary concerts, this past year the Chorus also delighted the city of Boston with Christmas Carols at Fanueil Hall.

Gay-Straight Alliance

This new club was organized by students to discuss the acceptance of gay people in our society. Their quote "If you're straight, don't be narrow-minded" demonstrates their efforts to erase the line between gay and straight people.

Key Club

Advised by Mr. Jay Griffin and sponsored by the local Kiwanis club, the Key club is composed of students who are active in community service. The members organized a Christmas party for senior citizens at Tempone Manor. This was the fifth year that the party was held. Officers include (From L-R) John Chiesa, Chuck Chiesa, Jason Loverme, Theresa Chausse, Sara Grant, Richard Alpers, Pat Manning, and Kristen Sullivan.

M-Club

The M Club is comprised of all varsity athletes who excel in one or more sports. These are the students who are Blue & White through and through. The advisors are Mr. Paul Mattatall and Mr. Mark Smith. Officers include (From L-R) Danielle Pappas, Elisee Lapaix, Nicole Russell, Kristen McCormick, Jason Loverme.

Varsity Math Team

Mr. Delano advises this group of "mathletes" every Friday in competition. The group acquires useful problem solving techniques and thinking abilities.

The Medford Theater Company

This year, under the new direction of Mr. Steven Flynn, the drama club will perform Hello Dolly. The drama club enjoys all aspects of the performing arts, such as music, dance, set building, and technical work.

MVTHS Student Council

Mr. Kevin Hickey advises this group of elected leaders including (L-R) Mr. Hickey, Danny Burroso, Crystal Capasso, President, Joe Silvati, Cynthia, DeMarco, John Bova. The members oversee social activities.

National Honor Society

These model students are recognized for their outstanding abilities in leadership, service, character and scholarship. Projects this year included Operation Overcoat and the Book Drive. Along with the advisor Barbara Malatesta, officers include: President Chris Bruno, Vice President Stephanie DiVito, Treasurer Heidi May, and Secretary Amanda Poverchuk.

The Mustang News

The four issues that this talented group of students published this year include sports coverage, current events and special activities. A new addition to the Mustang News is the poetry section. This year, the Graphic Arts Department of the Vocational-Technical High School, led by Mr. William Megeary, printed the editions. The Mustang News is advised by Mr. John Earley with co-editors Stephanie DiVito and Joe Dunne, and sports editor Pat Manning.

The Odyssey of the Mind

Orchestra

Under the direction of Ms. Barta Anderson, the MHS Orchestra performs a Winter and Spring concert every year. This year, the orchestra performed carols with the band and chorus for the people in Boston at Fanueil Hall.

Peer Leaders

The Peer Leaders educate and advise their fellow students on problems that confront teens. Subjects range from substance abuse to handling stress. Advisor Joe Parrella has arranged speakers to educate these students and sessions to bring parents and students closer together.

Poetry Club

The Poetry Club, formed this year by Matt Mahoney and Kate Sheridan, is an interesting addition to the high school. Students and teachers are welcome to read and listen to original poetry. The members experience "ecclectic shock" during their meets, due to the exciting variety of work presented.

Pre-Med Club

Ms. Tauber advises the Pre-Med club in exploring careers in health and medicine. Guest speakers educate this group; and field trips to health facilities give the students preparation for careers in the medical field. Officers include: President Sammy Davis, Vice President Lauren Maggio, Treasurer Chuck Chiesa and Secretary Andrea Gaeta.

S.A.D.D.

Jay Griffin advises Students Against Drunk Driving. This group of students is active in increasing the community's awareness to the dangerous effects of drunk driving. Activities include the red ribbon campaign in conjunction with Medford Saving Lives, and the Blood drive. Officers include: Jason Loverme, President, Charles Chiesa, Vice President, John Chiesa, Chiesa, Secretary, Theresa, Chausse, Treasurer

Science Team

Mr. John Lazzaro advises the Science Team in exercising their scientific abilities and interests. Their meets include scavenger hunts and a final competition. The Co-Captains are Melissa Privetera and Karen Carbone.

Ski Club

Advised by Mr. John Lazzaro, Mr. William Fargo, and Mr. John Sullivan, this group exercises its talent on the slopes at Sunday River and Loon Mountain. This year was particularly successful due to the excessive and early snow.

Student Council

Student Council members represent the ideas and concerns of the MHS student body to the administration. Under the direction of Ms. Marilyn Blumsack, these natural leaders have organized the Thanksgiving Food Drive, Operation Rise, and the Winter Carnival; this year's theme being "Make your mark". Officers include: President Lainy Destin, Vice President Maria Lanzarotta, Treasurer Andrea Tringali, Recording Secretary Kelly Moore, and Corresponding Secretary Maria Menounos.

Although the process of producing a Medford High School Yearbook is basically the same each year, I am always amazed with the way each staff is unique but productive, effective and totally committed to the idea that the team goal is paramount. This year, under the dedicated and skillful leadership of Laurie Witkus and Jessica Riviuccio the process was successful if not always as planned. Amanda Poverchuk, Katie Procopio, and Karla Kleinbergs were responsible for a part of the book, while Laurie and Jess were the overseers of the entire process.

On behalf of the Medford High School Community, I wish to express sincere appreciation and gratitude to each of the yearbook staff for their contributions. Although it was a team effort, I must single out Jessica and Laurie for performances way beyond what could have been expected. Their commitment was total and the Class of 1996 should be proud of them and thankful to them for their tireless efforts.
